Fingerprint Source Code to figure out children's character and potential

The fingerprints offer great insights into our children's potential and behavioral traits. It is a sort of instructions manual and access to the information is very quick and simple. With the knowledge of the children's individual source code parents and other caretakers have the key to encourage their specific talents as well as to cope with their shortcomings.

Why the Fingerprints?

HONEST: we cannot fake or manipulate a fingerprints

RELIABLE: fingerprints do not change until we die

EFFICIENT: within ten minutes you have the information

PROFOUND: fingerprints give insights into the sub-consciousness

INDIVIDUAL: every person has their own fingerprints formed before birth

SCIENTIFIC: fingerprint analysis' system may be compared to a math equation

OBJECTIVE: fingerprints are independent from hereditary factors/gender/culture etc.
